

Poaching - you can't afford it!

Killing a white-tailed deer on private property without landowner consent –

1st offense: Parks and Wildlife Code State Jail Felony resulting in:

- Fines ranging from $1,500 to $10,000 and/or
- Confinement in state jail from 180 days to two years

2nd offense: Parks and Wildlife Code Felony resulting in:

- Fines from $2,000 to $10,000, and/or
- Confinement in TDC from 2 years to 10 years

Hunting any wild bird or wild animal on any part of the road system of this state or hunting a game animal or bird with the aid of an artificial light –

1st offense: Class A Parks and Wildlife misdemeanor resulting in:

- Fines ranging from $500 to $4,000, and/or
- Confinement in jail for up to one year

2nd offense: Parks and Wildlife State Jail Felony resulting in:

- Fines ranging from $1,500 to $15,000, and/or
- Confinement in jail from 180 days to two years

The above regulations and penalties are not inclusive and hunters should consult the Texas Parks and Wildlife Outdoor Annual Hunting and Fishing Regulations publication or the local game warden. Also, the above offenses may result in loss of weapon or other personal property used in the commission of the offense and revocation or suspension of hunting licenses and permits.

Washington County Wildlife Society

For more information about the Society call 979-277-6212
1305 Blue Bell Road, Suite 104, Brenham, TX 77833
www.wcwildlife.org

Report game law violations to 979-836-2164 or to Operation Game Thief 1-800-792-4263